This will be the last service before the summer vacation, as Rev. Fish leaves for Boston the first of the week. Unity circle will meet with Mrs. George H. Reynolds on Wednesday. The ladies will take their lunch and spend the day.

Silent Unity.

The Society of Silent Unity (Divine Scientists), which meets every Tuesday at 2 p. m., has discontinued its meetings for the summer only, to convene again in September, owing to the absence of the conductor, Mrs. Drew. During the past year a course of study of great merit has been presented to the class for consideration, some of the richest gems of ancient philosophy being especially beneficial. The society, otherwise known as the "Truth Seekers," has faithfully worked in a quiet and unpretentious manner, and that its efforts have been appreciated and much interest aroused is apparent from the numerous inquiries regarding its nature, work and methods that have reached various members of the society and which is most gratifying. This public is always not only cordially welcome, but invited to attend its meetings.

Church Music.

Miss Mildred Nowell will sing the offertory solos at St. Mark's cathedral today—this morning, "My Redeemer and My Lord," by Dudley Buck, and this evening, "Abide With Me," by Liddle.

THE NATIONAL GUARD

Hospital Steward Fred Schmale has forwarded his resignation to headquarters.

A large increase in attendance was noticeable in the ranks of all the companies during the week, owing to the announcement of a camp of at least eight days and probably longer, if support is received from the war department.

If the war department gives the guard any assistance the next encampment will probably be held at Cheyenne with the regulars.

Corporal Paul Belcher of Troop A, First cavalry, has made application for furlough of two months on account of leaving the city.

The guard received a hard blow when the resignation of Colonel Sam C. Park was accepted. Colonel Park has been most zealous in the work as the present strength of the regiment shows.

Until the election of a lieutenant colonel the command of the First regiment will devolve upon Major L. S. Heywood.

Captain J. A. Greenwald will probably be elected lieutenant colonel of the First regiment.

Quartermaster Burkhart will soon be the only and proud possessor of a service bar. Sergeant Burkhart has been in the service of the state over eight years.

The examination of the several commissioned officers notified to appear before the board of examiners, took place at the armory last Thursday night.

Governor Wells, Adjutant General Burton and Brigadier General Cannon inspected the armory last Saturday. The governor and the two generals will be on a tour of inspection for about two weeks. They will spend the Fourth of July in Vernal. They also expect to visit Fort Duquesne, Heber and several other places.

Troop A will turn out for an inspection next Wednesday night. The inspection officer will be Colonel H. M. H. Lund.

Company D turned out in strong numbers last Wednesday and the members issued their full equipment.

Company E of Bountiful having its full complement of officers, the work of enlistment has begun and its officers state it will be seen at camp with a full roster.

In gallery practice Troop A leads, several of the troopers having done some remarkable shooting. Lieutenant Smith shooting ninety out of a possible 100 points.

There are incessant rumors about the armory to the effect that Captain Grov of battery A intends to make his home in Los Angeles, Cal. In this case the battery will lose one of its most efficient officers.

Company D drew heavily on the stores of the state last Monday night and the fact that the clothing stock is running low will be glad news to guardsmen for the new uniforms will then be ordered for the whole guard.

Captain G. N. Warwick, company D, has a movement on foot to get a new armory for the organizations located in Salt Lake. He is backed up very strongly by headquarters.

Steward Wooley of the Hospital corps has been discharged on account of leaving the state.

James A. Lee has been promoted to the vacancy caused by the discharge of Steward Wooley.

Company D has spent $150 for lockers and storerooms near the armory.
